3. For every item collected; the contractor will be required to issue a ticket in the form approved by the Sub-Division Officer. The contractor shall make his own arrangements to provide himself with a sufficient number of ticket books with counterfoils and these books should be made available for inspection by the officers on jatra duty not below the rank of a Revenue Inspector.

4. The person whose bid is (finally accepted) highest, should deposit one-fourth of the amount at once. In default of payment of the deposit immediately after the close of the sale, a re-sale will be conducted and he will be made responsible for any loss by such resale, but will not be entitled to any increase that may result by such resale; The rest of the money should be paid to the treasury within seven days after the sale and if the seventh day is a General Holiday within the next working day, failing which, a re-auction will be held at the risk of the bidder. The deposit made by him or such portion as the Deputy Commissioner thinks fit shall be forfeited to Government.

5. The sale will be subject to the confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner.

6. An appeal against the Deputy Commissioner's order confirming the sale will lie to the Muzrai Commissioner within fifteen days after the sale is confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner.

7. The sale conducting officer is not bound to accept any bid offered after the close of the sale.

8. The sale purchaser of the manure will have no right to collect manure in Hiduvali lands.

9. The contractor should deposit 300 free tickets with the Amildar for distribution among devotees who bring things in cart for charitable purposes "Aravattige," etc., and to raiyats who repair the temple and render service in the temple during Jatra.

10. The contractor shall not be entitled to any remission of the contract amount or to any compensation on account of any cause whatever.

11. The contractor should make his own arrangements for the collection work.

12. The contractor and his employees shall always behave courteously towards the public, not harass them or give them trouble of any kind—jatra commences from 13th January 1935.

Notification No. A2, dated 29th November 1934.

The following memo of precautionary measures to be adopted during the ensuing Sri Gangadhareswaraswami Jatra at Sivaganga, Nelamangala Taluk, which commences from 13th January 1935, is issued for information of the general public, in the interest of public safety and welfare:—

1. The shops located in the Jatra premises should be constructed in lines leaving an intervening space between shops and leaving a space of 7 feet from the said drains on both sides of the roads, to avoid accidents, obstruction, etc.
2. Sweetmeat shops and hotels should not be located near other shops. They should be in a separate (ingress and egress for men and women. The pilgrims visiting the shrine will be let into the temple by batches) line as they will always have the fire ovens going.
3. Temple premises.—Inside the compound, the temple verandah will be barricaded and provided with separate ingress and egress for men and women. The pilgrims visiting the shrine will be let into the temple by batches. The temple proper will on no account be allowed to be used as a halting or resting place.
4. Cattle fair.—Cattle that gather will not be allowed to be exhibited by the side of the high roads. They should be made to stand in places or picketed in lines specially allotted for the purpose.
5. Motor vehicles plying for hire for pilgrims will on no account be allowed to run through the Jatra premises. They must stop at the places reserved. Places will, however, be provided for the parking of such vehicles.
6. The speed of the pleasure cars in the Jatra premises should not exceed six miles an hour.
7. Licenses should not be granted to the Dramatic Companies, Circus, Cinema, Theatres, etc., until they have one hundred pots of water ready at all times to meet emergencies. Theatres should have at least six entrances and exits.
